

WP 5. Validation phase: Delphi Study (INCC, VUB, ULG).

A validation of the research findings will be organized through a participative Delphi study: an online group communication process that aims at conducting detailed examination and discussions of a specific issue for the purpose of goal setting, policy investigation or evaluation. The respondents group would consist of both criminal justice actors and social actors active in the field of IPV.