

WP 6. Knowledge integration and report (INCC, VUB, UCL, ULG).

A last work package – which by its very nature is cross-cutting - will deal with the articulation of the knowledge produced in the other work packages. This knowledge integration exercise should allow to reflect upon the two main questions addressed by the project in linking the results of the different work packages to our dual approach on impact & processes and public policies.